

All Golds Rugby League Safeguarding Statement

In the first instance any concerns regarding the safeguarding and well being of any person should be reported to Martin Lovegrove (07776485015) who is both the Club Welfare Officer and a club Director.

In the event that the concern should be about the CWO, then these concerns should in the first instance be reported to another club Director or the Head Coach.

All Golds Rugby League agree to abide by the terms and conditions of the RFL Operational Rules applicable at any time in their entirety.

All Golds Rugby League agree to abide by the terms and conditions of the RFL Safeguarding Policy applicable at any time in their entirety.

All Golds Rugby League agree to abide by any additional guidelines which are to be read in conjunction with either the RFL Operational Rules or the RFL Safeguarding Policy, such as but not restricted to Tackle It, Respect, Whistle Blowing, applicable at any time in their entirety.

All Golds Rugby League, whilst accepting that in the main the RFL Safeguarding Policy is aimed at young people and vulnerable adult groups, appreciate that the best practise contained therein is also applicable to every person involved within the game of rugby league. All Golds Rugby League will therefore endeavour to apply this best practise to all of their activities.

All Golds Rugby League believe that the game should be enjoyable for all who take part or watch, so please enjoy it.